How Cumbria Medical Services uses your information to provide you with healthcare

Cumbria Medical Services (CMS) keeps medical records confidential and complies with the General Data Protection Regulation.

We hold your information so that we can provide you with safe care and treatment.

We will also use your information so that we can check and review the quality of the care we provide. This helps us to improve our services to you.

- We will share relevant information with other health or social care staff or organisations when they provide you with care. For example, we will share relevant medical information about your treatment or procedure with your GP.
- More information on how we share your information with organisations who are directly involved in your care can be requested from the Practice Manager.
- You have the right to object to information being shared for your own care. Please speak to the practice if you wish to object. You also have the right to have any mistakes or errors corrected.

Other important information about how your information is used to provide you with healthcare

Registering for NHS care

- All patients who receive NHS care are registered on a national database.
- This database holds your name, address, date of birth and NHS Number but it does not hold information about the care you receive.
- The database is held by NHS Digital, a national organisation which has legal responsibilities to collect NHS data.
- More information can be found at: <https://digital.nhs.uk/> or by contacting the general enquiries number NHS Digital is 0300 303 5678.

Safeguarding

- Sometimes we need to share information so that other people, including healthcare staff, children or others with safeguarding needs, are protected from risk of harm.
- These circumstances are rare.
- We do not need your consent or agreement to do this.

We are required by law to provide you with the following information about how we handle your information.
